

Livia Diener

Livia Diener started dancing at Boulder Ballet School and joined the company at age 17 under the direction of Peter Davidson and Ana Claire. She then danced under Gil Boggs and Erica Fishbach at Colorado Ballet. Livia also danced at Sacramento Ballet under Amy Siewert and Andre Reyes.

As a student, Livia was awarded multiple scholarships, and attended summer intensives such as Bolshoi Ballet, American Ballet Theatre, and Boston Ballet.

During her career, Livia has performed a variety of corps de ballet, soloist, and principal roles. Repertoire she has performed includes The Nutcracker, Coppelia, La Sylphide, A Midsummer Night's Dream, Giselle, Paquita, La Bayadere, Napoli, Swan Lake, Sleeping Beauty, Who Cares, Serenade, and Tarantella. This is Livia's second season dancing with Colorado West Performing Arts Company.
