

Shannon Mullaney

Shannon Mullaney began her dance training at age four at the Brae Crest School of Ballet in Lincoln, Rhode Island. She later joined the State Ballet of Rhode Island, rising through the ranks from apprentice to soloist. Here, she was cast in several leading roles including Giselle in Giselle, the Prayer Variation in Coppélia, Swanhilda's Friend in Coppélia, Waltz Soloist in Walpurgis Night, and Lead Princess in A Tale of 12 Dancing Princesses. Shannon also attended summer programs at the Nutmeg Ballet Conservatory, Central Pennsylvania Youth Ballet, and School of Philadelphia Ballet. After attending the School of Philadelphia Ballet's summer intensive virtually in 2020, Shannon was invited to their Professional Day program where she trained for two years. Shannon is thrilled to join Colorado West Performing Arts Company as an apprentice for their inaugural season.
