

SETH WALLEY

Seth is excited to be joining Colorado West Performing Arts Company for their inaugural season. He started his performing career in musical theatre, but along the way, he discovered ballet and quickly fell in love. Seth trained at Springfield Ballet and received his B.S. in dance at Missouri State University. He attended summer intensives at Cincinnati Ballet and Central Pennsylvania Youth Ballet, where he was also a resident advisor. Seth still enjoys musical theatre and opera and has performed in numerous professional and community productions.